WILEY R. JOHNSON, KILLED.

Editor of Sneedville News.

An incident occurred in our community on Dec. 2nd without precedent so far as we know, sorrow and gloom being its fruits.

Wiley Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson, one of our much respected boys, lost his life in undertaking to ride a mule. Bob helped Isaac Hatfield to gather corn all day Monday, Dec. 2. After finishing his day's work he unhitched the animal and succeeded in mounting it when Bob was thrown. His foot caught in the chains of the harness, thus frightening the animal more and more. Before Hatfield and his son Eugene could come to his rescue, the animal ran around the crib which was near and then started down the creek, coming out to the public road about a quarter of a mile from Hatfield's. Then the animal kept the road until it reached a gate above Amos Bell's grist mill which three quarters of a mile from where it started. Here Hatfield and son succeeded in stopping the animal and loosed the young man's foot. Bob was struggling and died a few minutes later.

I take the liberty to say that the people here join me in expressing a sincere sorrow to the bereaved ones in their late hour of grief and loss.

Bob leaves a Father, Mother and four brothers to mourn after him.

We believe there was no better young man in our community than Bob whom we will miss because he was a hard worker and were kind and courteous to all who knew him.

He was taken to the Brewer's Cemetery for interment, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Willie P. Lamb.

Sincerely,

C. H. Hatfield.

IS STILL IMPROVING

Salisbury South Hampton Eng.

Nov. 7, 1918.

Dear Father and Brothers:

I will try to write you. I am still improving.

We are having some nice weather for November, cool nights and warm days.

There are some brick masons building a house here. I watch them and wonder if you have got you chimney built. I would like to be there and get up and build you a fire these cold mornings, and I may be before the winter is over as my dream almost came true, and I think it will soon. Every body are expecting the time to wind real soon.

So hoping to see better days soon, I will close.

O. C. Campbell.
